REPENTANCE.

A kitten once to its mother said,
"I'll never more be good;
But I'll go and be a robber fierce,
And live in a dreary wood,
Wood, wood, wood,
And live in a dreary wood."

It climbed a tree to rob a nest
Of young and tender owls;
But the branch broke off and the kitten fell,
With six tremendous howls,
Howls, howls, howls,
With six tremendous howls.

Then up it rose, and scratched its nose,
And went home very sad;
"Oh mother dear, behold me here,
I'll never more be bad,
Bad, bad, bad,
I'll never more be bad."

DO SOMETHING.

It is truly a melancholy spectacle to see so many drones in the great and busy hive of human life. We daily see young men of education, and who possess more than ordinary natural gifts, lounging about as listlessly as if there was nothing in the boundless universe worthy of their attention. How utterly lost to manhood are many sons of wealthy parents! No ambition, no hope, no ardent desire, ever spurs them on to leap from obscurity into the broad daylight of lasting renown. Their lives, which should be full of noble achievements, are dawdled away in unholy dissipations. If such is to become the universal effect of wealth on the rising generation, it were far better that poverty should forever be the handmaid of our sons and daughters. In the name of common humanity, we call on young men to do something. Do not sneak from the cradle of infancy to the coffin of oblivion without, at least, one great effort to prove you have not lived in vain. Remember that fame and honor are never achieved with folded arms and 'masterly inactivity.' When the sublime wisdom of common sense taught Columbus there was a new world, he did not preach his belief with idle hands, and lack lustre eye. The wonderful discoveries in science and art were not made by men who regarded life as a holiday of idleness. If you would achieve fame, if you would win the applause of your fellow men, if you would gain your own self-respect, then, in the name of all that is good and sacred, we call on you to go to work and do something.

BEGINNING THE WORLD.

Many an unwise parent labors hard and lives sparingly all his life, for the purpose of leaving enough to give his children a start in the world, as it is called. Setting a young man afloat with money left him by relatives, is like tying bladders under the arms of one who cannot swim; ten chances to one he will loose his bladders and go to the bottom. Teach him to swim and he never will need bladders. Give your child a sound education, and you have done enough for him. See to it that his morals are pure, his mind cultivated, and his whole nature made subservient to the laws which govern men, and you have given what will be of more value to him than the wealth of the Indies. To be thrown upon one's resources is to be cast into the very lap of fortune, for our faculties then undergo a development, and display an engergy, of which they were previously unsusceptible.

WASN'T POSTED.

The following is from our attentive friend, 'J. H. C.,' of Clifton Park, N. Y. He has a rare budget of good stories, of which we have several yet on hand: "V—— was a member of the Legislature of N. Y. when Marcy was Governor.—The Gov. gave a supper, and the legislators were his guests. The repast was of the most sumptuous kind, and V—— had never before dreamed of anything so grand. The principal dishes being disposed of, ice cream was next in order for the dessert. One of the waiters set a large dish of the delicious cream by the side of N——'s plate, intending to dish it out at the proper time. In the meantime, V——, supposing it was intended for his sole use, took a spoon and began to taste it. He was evidently displeased with it, for he dropped the spoon as though shot, and called out, 'Waiter! waiter!' The waiter having approached, V—— leaned towards him in a confidential manner and whispered, 'I say, waiter, this pudding's froze.' There were few sober faces during the remainder of the evening, and the other honorable gentlemen were careful not to mistake ice cream for pudding.

TALKING FINE.

Ludicrous blunders sometimes occur in cases where ignorant persons attempt the use of language about the meaning of which they know nothing.

Not long since, while traveling from Pittsburgh to Cincinnati, two rather verdant specimens of the female sex came on board the boat at one of the landings, who for the sake of distinction, we will call Mary and Jane.

Now, Mary, had her eye-teeth cut, or in other words, was acquainted with the rules and regulations which govern genteel society; Jane, the younger, had never mixed in society to any extent. Her language was such as she heard among her rustic acquaintances. Mary was aware of this fact, and therefore cautioned her to observe how she (Mary) acted, and govern herself accordingly.

Shortly after, while seated at the dinner-table, the waiter asked Mary what part of the fowl she would have? She informed him in a very polite manner, that it was "perfectly immaterial."

He accordingly gave her a piece, and then inquired of Jane what part she would prefer?

"I believe I will take a piece of the immaterial too."

"AMELIA, for thee—yes, at thy command, I'd tear this eternal fermament into a thousand fragments—I'd gather the stars one by one as they tumbled from regions of ethereal space and put them in my trowsers pockets; I'd pick the sun—that oriental god of day, that traverses the blue arch of heaven in such majestic splendor—I'd tear him from the sky and quench his bright effulgence in the fountain of my eternal love for thee! Amelia"—"Don't, Henry, it would be so very dark."

SCENE—A crowded horse car: First passenger. (To sturdy laborer standing in front of him:) "I say there, I've got toes!" Second passenger. "Y-e-s," (a gleam of intelligence lightens his face,) "I felt 'em."

WOODEN legs cost the government last year $35,206,50. Wooden heads cost the government much more than that.

DIDN'T THINK.

Opening the door of a friend's house one day, I made my way through the entry to the small back court, where Ned, the only son, was crying bitterly.

"Ah, Ned, what is the matter?"

"Mother won't let me go fishing.—Harry and Tom are going to the harbor, and I want to go." Here Ned kicked his toes angrily against the post, to the great damage of his new boots.

"Whose little dog is this?" I asked, as a brown spaniel came bounding up the garden walk.

"It is mine," cried Ned in an altered tone. "Did you not know I had one?"

"No, indeed. What a fine little fellow. Where did you get him, Ned?"

"Father bought him for me. He is so knowing, and I teach him many things. See him find my knife;" and Ned, wiping away his tears, threw his knife into the clover.

"There, Wag," said he, "now go and find my knife." Wag plunged into the grass, and after a great deal of smelling and wagging, he came triumphantly forth, and brought the knife to his young master.

"Give it to him," said Ned, pointing to me; and Wag laid it at my feet.

"This is a knife worth having," said I; "four blades."

"'Tis a real good one," said Ned; "father gave it to me on my birth-day; and he gave me a splendid box of tools, too." Ned looked up brightly and forgot his crying.

"Let me think," said I. "Was it this knife that you hurt your foot so with?"

"Oh no," cried Ned, "that was done with an axe; but I've got well now."

"I was afraid you would be laid up all the spring."

"Well, it was mother's nursing, the doctor says. Mother and father took very great care of me. It was lonely staying in the house so; but mother used to leave her work and read to me, and father often stayed with me."

"I should think you had very kind parents, Ned." The boy looked down on the floor, and a slight pout puckered his lip. "I suppose there are none who have your interest and happiness so much at heart."

"But I want to go fishing," muttered Ned.

"And can't you trust them, Ned, and willingly agree to their wishes? You may not, indeed, know the reason why they object to your going; but, from all your experience of their kindness and wisdom, are you not sure that they would not cross your wishes without good reason for doing so? And surrounded as you are by so many proofs of their love, will you sit there and murmur and cry, and fill your heart with angry and stubborn thoughts agaist them, because of this one little denial of your wants. Is not this a poor and ungrateful return for all their kindness? It is little enough that a child can do for a parent, but that little he ought to do most cheerfully. I suppose the best return a child can make to parents is a cheerful obedience. How small that seems! And will you grudge giving that, Ned?"

Ned looked sober. Tears started in his eyes. "Oh, sir," said he humbly, "I didn't think of it."

"Didn't think" is at the bottom of a great deal of our ingratitude and murmuring against both our earthly parents and our Father who is in Heaven.

GOLDEN RULES.—Remember the golden rule: Do unto others as you would they should do unto you.

Between virtue and vice there is no middle path.

He who rises late never does a good day's work.

Defer not till to-morrow what should be done to-day.

Be not fond of change; a rolling stone gathers no moss.

A contented mind is a continual feast.

Waste not—want not. Willful waste makes woeful want.

Take not even a pin that is not your own.

A civil word is as soon spoken as a rude one.

AN exchange says: "We were considerably amused the other evening at three little girls playing among the sage brush in the back yard. Two of them were making believe keep house, a few yards distant from each other—neighbors as it were. One of them said to the third little girl: "There, now, Nelly, you go to Sarah's house, and stop a little while and talk, and then you come and tell me what she says about me; and then I'll talk about her, and then you go and tell her all I say, and then we'll get mad and won't speak to each other, just like our mother's do, you know. O! that'll be such fun."

A COMMITTEE, so says John Phoenix, waited on Jo, Bowers when he was a candidate for the Legislature in California, and wanted him to state what his politics were. "Gentlemen," said Joseph, "I have none." "What! Mr. Bowers, no politics?" "No, gentlemen, not 'a d—d politic!'" Joseph was not elected.

A GIRL broke through the ice at London, Canada, a few days since, where the water was not deep enough to drown her; but, being unable to get out, she perished of cold, crying for help, in full view of a number of citizens and soldiers, who had not the courage to rescue her.

THE London Globe says a man named Charlier thinks the notion that horses need shoes entirely wrong. He himself does not cut a horse's hoof. He merely protects it against violent blows and accidents, and against the wear and tear of the Paris pavements, by placing it in a thin circle of iron, which wards it from danger without compressing it. In this way the horse stands on a healthy member instead of upon one which is being constantly wounded by the iron and knife of the smith. Besides the economy of this reform, it is expected to make hoof diseases infrequent.

JOHN YUNDT, of Lancaster, is the happy possessor of three penguin fowls. This variety of the feathered tribe is scarce. It differs from our common fowls in that it walks erect, resembling, when in motion, a dog standing on his hind legs.

A VERMONT paper says: Water in Burlington is selling at half a dollar a barrel. Wells, springs, and cisterns are generally dry, and water has to be drawn from the lake. The cartmen are reaping a good harvest by drawing water for family use.

RADICAL NEWSPAPER VIEWS.

The Revolutionary Action of Congress.

The following extracts from Northern Republican papers on the course and action of Congress at this time, afford matter for serious reflection:

[From the New York Evening Post, Rep.]

* * Mr. Johnson, by the choice of the people, is the Chief Magistrate of the nation; as such he is responsible for the execution of the laws, and has a clear right to choose the subordinates by whom the laws are to be enforced. He must submit his appointments to office to the confirmation of the Senate, but is otherwise independent of Congress. The tenure-of-office act, by which the Senate has been made to control the President's power of removal, is not according to the Constitution. Mr. Stanton believes that it is not, and yet he avails himself of this law, which he says is not a constitutional law, which is voidable and disorganizing, to resume a place in the Cabinet of President Johnson which he has been especially desired to resign. It seems to us necessary only to state a case like this to a man who respects himself, to be certain of what his course will be. It is not enough to reply that a large majority of the members of Congress have signed a letter requesting him to resume the duties of Secretary of War.

Members of Congress have nothing to do with the control of the executive department of the government, which, in all sound theory as in the express letter of the organic law, it is desirable to keep distinct; and their interference is as revolutionary as it would be to resolve the President out of office. If Mr. Johnson does not do his duty, if he refuses to execute the laws, or execute them in such a manner as to defeat their purposes, the remedy for his course is pointed out. It is not to invade the sphere of the executive functions by legislative encroachments, which will be a precedent for other times, but to impeach and remove him if guilty. But the plan of impeachment has been tried, and after a year's incubation it has hatched out nothing.—Ashley's eggs were all addled; and now an illegal course is to be pursued to attain an end which could not be attained by the law. Mr. Stanton is made the catspaw of this dangerous and wicked policy.

Whatever Mr. Johnson's designs may be, he is answerable to the people; and he is answerable only in the way that the constitution prescribes. Congress may not like his individual peculiarities or his political principles, but he is none the less as much a part of the government as Congress itself, and what is more, he represents nearly as large a part of popular opinion as Congress does. It may be distasteful to admit it, but it is true, that the political sentiments of the President have a large following—not among the rebels only, as the cry has it, but among the loyal people of the North. He is supported in the most of his positions by the great opposition, or Democratic party, and that support is extending and growing rapidly under the fostering care of Congress. Thousands who have no liking for the President, personally or politically, who think that he has managed his opportunities with an utter want of tact and skill, and to the detriment of the public interests, are yet unprepared to see the established order of the constitution assailed in his person, and all the limitations and balances of the government, which are the bulwarks of liberty, overturned in the hot frenzy of partizan zeal.

From the Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

The only defensible reason for reconstructing the Southern State governments was the purpose to confer suffrage on the freedmen, in order to the protection of their rights. Those governments were well enough in every other respect. If this single purpose had controlled in the matter, the process would have been comparatively simple and unobjectionable. But party objects were allowed to be mixed in. It was thought it would be a good thing so to manipulate the Southern governments as to secure the votes of the reconstructed States for a Republican President. To accomplish this the right to vote and hold office was taken from all the Southern whites who had held office requiring an oath to support the constitution of the United States. This excluded at once from political life the most intelligent classes in the South, and those at the time best disposed to accept any terms of reconciliation that should be offered. This made reconstruction by the white population of the South impossible, for they naturally felt that it would be dishonorable to abandon the leaders who shared with them the guilt of the rebellion. Reconstruction was thus thrown into the hands of the negroes, led by a few Northern white men and Southerners who did not scruple to take any oath required of them. That they should seek to retain power by the same policy which gave it to them is a matter of course, and the first new constitution framed virtually excludes nearly every white man from suffrage and office. It is so utterly indefensible on any principle of justice and equality that its framers fear its rejection by the registered voters, and are begging them to accept it in the hope that Congress will strike out its objectionable provisions.

The course of things in Congress just now does not tend to sustain any such hope. It is essential to the programme that the whites of the South shall be in the minority, and the determination seems to be to put it through at all hazards. The last remains of civil governments in the South are swept away upon the declaration that they are not "republican in form," though the forms are just what they always have been. The false reason has some value, however, as showing at least an appearance of respect for the phases of the constitution. But we have not come to the end of this business; we cannot even see to it. The governments of the minority in the South, and that minority black, will find it necessary to be more and more repressive, and will need a strong military force to maintain them. Is anybody so insane as to predict reconciliation of races, true republican or even moderately just government, and restored peace and loyalty as the result of such a system?—If so, about how soon? No, the system is fundamentally wrong, and will inevitably wax worse and worse. And men are already asking how soon "political necessity" may lead Congress to interfere with certain Northern States and compel them to take the "republican form" of negro suffrage and white disfranchisement.

The restoration of Secretary Stanton is doubtless consistent with the tenure-of-office act. A special provision was inserted in it, indeed, to meet his case.—But the discussion has made it clear that the law cannot be defended upon general principles. To compel a President to retain in his cabinet a man with whom friendly or respectful relations are impossible, everybody feels to be an outrage. Having had its way and protected Mr. Stanton, the Senate would do well to repeal at once the provision made for his case, in behalf of which as a permanent rule not a word can be said.

The proposition to get rid of General Hancock by the indirect and cowardly dodge of reducing the number of major generals is of a piece with the scheme for preventing a decision against the constitutionality of reconstruction by hampering the Supreme Court. They both illustrate our theme, and show how one wrong act makes another necessary, and so legislation inevitably goes from bad to worse. There is yet hope that the Senate will arrest these measures. The same party exigency which makes the two-thirds rule necessary for the Supreme Court may soon require that the Court shall be forbidden to pronounce any act of Congress unconstitutional, even if unanimous in that opinion. There is absolutely no stopping place in legislation of this kind. The descent to hell is easy, to be sure; but how are we to get back, if we ever wish to stand again on terra firma? General Grant can carry a pretty heavy load for us, but there are weights that even he cannot lift, and gulfs too broad even for him to cross. A step too far may make return impossible."

[From the New York Times.]

The Republican party is pressing issues into the Presidential canvass which will ensure its defeat. It cannot safely wage war upon the Supreme Court, in the present temper of the public mind, even with the help of the negro vote which it aims to secure by its action.

* * Valueless will be the devoted services and signal triumphs of our army and navy, if our statesmen fail or falter in performing their share of the great work. And are they not failing? Are not the great questions of finance and currency overlaid? Is not the re-union of the States and the return of the Southern people to their accustomed pursuits made subordinate to the question of negro suffrage? Has not all the legislation of Congress for nearly three years had direct reference to the Presidential election? And now, at this present moment, is not Congress using all its great power to give the control of the Presidential election to green negroes who are confessedly "ignorant of the means by which suffrage is expressed?"

The eternal truth of the maxim that whom the gods intend to destroy are first made mad is lost as an example. The lesson so recently, and with such terrible effect, taught the rebels, proves of no value to the Radicals. They blindly persist in a course which is sure to overwhelm them. The measures kindred to these now being perfected in Congress cost the Republican party its ascendency in six free States. And yet, blind and reckless, Congress learns nothing of what is evident to all intelligent observers. This utter delusion can only be explained upon the principle that "madness precedes destruction."

INSOLENCE REBUKED.

A short time since, says the Evansville Courier, the G. A. R. had a celebration of some sort at Madison, Indiana, at which General Nathan Kimball was one of the principal speakers. It appears that this blustering hero in his speech declared that any one who had been a soldier and does not belong to the Grand Army of the Republic is a traitor to his country and recreant to the cause for which he fought. The editor of the Madison Free Press, who was in the war, comes back at the doughty General in the following severe but just style:

GEN. NATHAN KIMBALL.—The gentleman whose name heads this article is making notoriety for himself. Pity, General, to sully a fair military record by defaming those who may see fit to differ from you in politics. General, we understand you to say that "any one who has been a soldier and does not belong to the Grand Army of the Republic is a traitor to his country and recreant to the cause for which he fought." General Kimball, if you made that remark you lied, and you knew you lied when you made it.—It is easy for you, General Kimball, who entered the service as a Colonel, with the pay of $222 per month, well supplied with transportation and every luxury that your rank could command, with orderlies to put up your tents and numerous servants to do your bidding, and soon promoted to the rank of Brigadier General, to receive increased pay and greater emoluments, and then come home and receive the political office of Treasurer of the State, to denounce those who carried on their backs what they ate, what they slept on, what they cooked in, and what they did their fighting with, as traitors because they do not attach themselves to a secret, dark-lantern association.

You ought to know, General, that treason is the highest crime known to the law. You, in a public speech, take the opportunity to denounce as traitors those who probably did as good fighting as yourself. "These be hard words, master." There was no occasion for you to thus insult those of us who do not vote as you do. And we here reiterate our assertion, that if you say all soldiers who do not belong to the Grand Army of the Republic are traitors you are a liar, and a coward if you do not resent it. You cannot make the excuse, General Kimball, that we are unworthy of notice.—No such coward's plea as that will suffice. We had the honor of belonging to and commanding as noble a regiment of Indianians as ever left our State, and our record is too well known to offer such a plea to skulk off on.

This is plain talk. The time has come when Democratic soldiers must no longer sit "with bated breath and whispered humbleness" and be denounced as worse than common felons. It has been expected that slander and abuse can be heaped upon us because we do not sell our principles for the blandishments of those in place and power with impunity. We, for one, will hurl back such epithets and cram them arm's length down the lying throats that utter them.

We could remind General Kimball of a little incident that occurred at Lexington, Indiana, a year or two ago (in which our friend Colonel Tom Shea was engaged,) when he (Kimball) was parading his sores before the country for a political office, but we think what we have said will suffice for the present.

"MA, why is a postage stamp like a bad scholar?" "I can't tell, my son; why is it?" "Because it gets licked and stuck in a corner."

"PA, I know why that old fashioned pistol of your'n that grandpa fit with in the Revolution, is called a horse-pistol." "Why, my son?" "Because it kicks so."

HONESTY is the best policy, even if it does keep a man poor.

GENS. GRANT AND SHERMAN VS. STANTON.

The Radical papers having denied that Gens. Grant and Sherman advised Stanton to resign, a Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun telegraphs that paper, under date of Monday last, as follows:

It is said Mr. Stanton has authorized the statement in the papers that he has not been advised by Generals Grant and Sherman to resign. Your correspondent's assertion that these distinguished officers had advised Mr. Stanton to resign was based upon what they themselves have said upon the subject, and whether they did in fact go to Mr. Stanton and say to him that he should give up the office or not, your correspondent now states unqualifiedly that both Generals Grant and Sherman told the President that they would go to Mr. Stanton and give him their opinion that he ought to resign the office of Secretary of War.

General Grant had an interview with the President yesterday, and left with the avowed purpose of going immediately to Mr. Stanton and giving him the above advice. These are facts about which there will be no dispute between the President and Generals Grant and Sherman.

This emphatic statement entirely refutes the Radical falsehood on this subject, and places Stanton, in his determination to hold on to a place in which he is not wanted, in a more unenviable position than he has yet occupied. Was there ever a more ravenous office-holder than Edwin M. Stanton?

RECONSTRUCTION BILL.

The new reconstruction bill passed the House at Washington on Tuesday, by a strict party vote—123 to 45. Butler's substitute for the first section of the bill, giving the so-called reconstruction conventions, now in session in the Southern States, power to remove civil officers therein, and appoint others in their places, was voted down by 112 to 53. The bill, therefore, stands substantially as reported by the committee. After it had passed, Mr. Fernando Wood proposed to amend the title, but Mr. Bingham, who had the floor, declined to allow the amendment to be read. The following, however, is a correct copy thereof:

A bill to absorb the entire authority of the government into the hands of Congress, by which the power of the Executive as Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy shall be abolished—the power of the Supreme Court to pass upon the validity of acts of Congress prohibited—Congressional usurpation over ten States established by force of arms, and a new form of government created in place of that which formerly existed under the Constitution of the United States, hereby declared to be annulled and made void.

The bill now goes to the Senate, and there is considerable speculation as to how that body will treat it. There are those who believe that it cannot pass in its present odious shape. We shall see.

A GOOD SIGN.

The Supreme Court, on Wednesday, decided in favor of advancing the Mississippi test case of McArdle on the docket, setting it down for hearing on the first Monday in March next. This case involves the constitutionality of the Radical Reconstruction acts, and is of overshadowing importance on that account. It is said that five out of the eight judges favored an early hearing. This is a hopeful sign.

WHAT THE PEOPLE WILL NOT DO.

The New York Tribune, than which no higher Radical authority exists, in an article, advocating "the Congressional plan for reducing the South to the control of the negroes, says:

"This question is overshadowing. No other of comparable importance now divides our countrymen. Beside it, all questions of preference for A, B or C as next President seem frivolous—puerile. And it is clear that the great majority so think and feel."

That's it, exactly! The question is an overshadowing one, and because it is so, the people, who are thinking, will elect no man to the Presidency who is not squarely and unequivocally opposed to the infamous and ruinous plans of the present Radical Congress. All ideas of self-preservation and pride of country forbid any other result.

GENERAL GRANT has not yet attempted an explanation of his "singular conduct" in the Stanton affair. His "chagrin" still exists, but he has not yet given his excuse. In reference to this "singular conduct" of the General, the Baltimore Sun thus speaks:

GENERAL GRANT AND THE PRESIDENT.—The National Intelligencer made a statement on Wednesday last similar to that made by our correspondent "Data," in relation to the engagement which General Grant is alleged to have made with the President as to the course he would pursue in the event that the Senate should seek to force Mr. Stanton back into the Cabinet. This statement having been drawn in question by a portion of the Radical press, the Intelligencer of yesterday reiterates it in full, and adds: "The above statement of facts was made by us deliberately, carefully and advisedly. We repeat and reiterate it in the most emphatic manner. We know it to be true in all its length and breadth, and we challenge General Grant to deny it in a single particular. On this point we refer to a dispatch of the Washington correspondent of the New York World, confirming our statement."

NO RESPECT FOR LAW.—General Hancock, in his recent orders, declared that the writ of habeas corpus, the Civil Courts, and the Freedom of the Press, must be respected.

A resolution was offered in Congress, a few days since, tendering him a vote of thanks for this expression of his loyalty to the Constitution and the laws of his country.

The Mongrels in Congress refused to pass the resolution; and thereby declared that the writ of habeas corpus, civil courts, and the freedom of the press, should not be respected by them.

WHEN a few negroes were discharged from service in the South, the whole country was vocal with the indignation of the Radical press over the outrage. Almost daily we hear of the discharge of white laborers all over the North, but not a sign of sorrow over these announcements comes from the bosoms of the Radical press. The sympathies of that happy organization are all with the negroes. It has no kind word for its own race, and its own race, if it does its duty, will have few kind words for the Radicals.

THE SECOND GUN FOR 1868!—A correspondent, at Cardington, Ohio, states that an election for Justices of the Peace had been held in that township (Westfield) a few days previously, which resulted in the triumph of the Democratic nominee by a majority of two to one. Last fall the township gave a Radical majority of forty-two! This is but a sign of the almost incredible reaction that is going on all over the country.

AN English contractor has been sentenced to five years' penal servitude for merely attempting to swindle the Government in supplies for the Abyssinian war.

THE CRISIS.

In the New York World, of Saturday, the following article appeared, which we present to our readers with such prominence as its importance demands.—While columns might be written upon the subject, it would scarcely be possible to discuss the great questions thus treated in a more concise and eloquent manner, and we ask for it a calm and careful perusal:

THE RUMP REVOLUTION.

The Revolutionists of the Rump Congress are advancing rapidly to the final consummation of their treason. Thither all their steps have tended since the putting down of the rebellion removed every hindrance but themselves to a restored Union. They have taken no steps backward.

They began by denying to the people of ten States their right to be represented in the government. Next they ejected from their seats in Congress Northern representatives enough to give them a two-thirds majority for overriding every veto which might block their path to power. Having made themselves a Rump, they proceeded to make the Rump supreme.

They passed a bill stripping the Executive of his power to remove civil subordinates whose faithless discharge of their trusts might incapacitate him, through them, to execute the laws.—They stripped him even of the power to choose his own confidential advisers, and they have restored to his seat in the Cabinet (and their tool obeys the mandate) a minister who had pronounced the law unconstitutional by which he holds his place; and, to-day, having erected a military government in ten States, they are stripping the Commander-in-Chief of all control of his subordinates in the army of the United States.

Thus not merely do they leave naked of all his rightful authority and power Andrew Johnson, the transient choice of the people of the United States as the executor of their laws, but they are destroying one equal and co-ordinate branch of the government as it was established in 1789; and to the people themselves remains, out of the whole body of executive power then assigned and distributed to their servants, nothing but the privilege to participate in a packed election, from which ten out of thirty-seven States are excluded, for a Chief Magistrate reduced to impotence, and a Commander-in-Chief whom they are instructing his army to disobey.

Congress is to-day the Executive. The chair, the duty, the authority which once were Washington's and Jefferson's, Madison's and Jackson's, Adams', Harrison's and Taylor's, this Rump usurps.

For the spotless ermine which Jay, Marshall, and Taney have worn, though now resting chiefly upon the shoulders of men of their own choice, they reserve no better fate. The judicial power vested by the people in one Supreme Court, like the executive power vested in the President, stands equally in their way, and blocks their path to unbalanced, uncontrolled supremacy. The judgment of that high tribunal in the Milligan case; their unanimous judgment that where the authority of the United States was unopposed and its courts were open, a military commission had no jurisdiction to try a citizen who was neither a prisoner of war nor in the military service; the judgment of a majority that Congress could not have given a military commission jurisdiction, left the usurpers of the Rump without hope that the judges would become their tools. If clear-eyed justice did not hesitate to pronounce lawless the deeds which had a state of war for their excuse, they could not hope it would spare their usurpations ventured in time of peace. Wherefore to secure themselves in their usurpations of executive power, and to entrench themselves against the bolt which sooner or later was to be delivered from the sovereign seat of justice, and to shatter the right arm of their strength and the military government of the South, which were their citadels, the Rump, taking no steps backward, advances to the audacious usurpation of the authority of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Congress is to-day the Judiciary. The Constitution which gave Congresses the right to be, the laws heretofore enacted in pursuance therewith, the authoritative decisions of a noble line of justices unimpeached for their probity and who have judged the people righteously—these and all these the Rump makes less of than the vote of a majority of its caucus; these and their authority the Rump usurps.

Thus the legislative power of the people of ten States, and the executive power and judiciary power of the people of thirty-seven States, is usurped by a Rump calling itself a National Legislature and making itself supreme.

These men are traitors, and this is Revolution.

The men of the Rump are traitors—not with arms seeking to secede from one free government in order to establish another like the first—they are traitors to representative government itself, to the institutions which alone in modern times have enshrined civil liberty. They are traitors to the freedom of freemen.

What next?

The Rump Revolutionists leave us in no doubt. No step backward. They tread straight forwardly the path down which other nations have been led by other traitors to the rights, the liberties, and the governments of other people. The key to all those arsenals of governmental power, from which they are ejecting the lawful custodians, they propose to surrender to General Grant. He is named by his office in the latest reconstruction bill. Him they load with their plunder and their stolen badges of authority.

What should now hinder the House of Representatives from dissolving the Senate; or what hereafter should hinder General Grant from dispersing both. Not the supreme law, for they may as well abdicate the powers they possess, as usurp those with which they were never endowed; and he may as well profit by his own usurpations as chosen to profit by theirs. It is not a more flagrant violation of the supreme law to abolish a branch of the Legislature than to take into the custody of both branches powers elsewhere deposited to be the check and balance upon theirs. And when General Grant accepts at the hands of the revolutionists of the Rump these powers usurped from the Executive and usurped from the Judiciary, he will have deprived the country and Congress itself of the only guarantee which it is possible for him to give, that he will not refuse to lay them down, that he will not attempt theirs also.

What next? The people next November will answer that. They will neither have a Rump Congress supreme over them, nor a Military Dictatorship in the person of General Grant. Ten times more than the founders of our government dreaded from the open or secret monarchists of 1789, these Revolutionists have actually accomplished by affirmative legislative towards breaking down the safeguards of Republican self-government. But the attempts which were frustrated then have less prospect of final success now. Generation after generation has enjoyed the blessings of liberty, learned to use and prize them, and transmitted them to their children. The people of 1868 have come into that great inheritance, and will not long be dispossessed of it. Nor will those who have left their native lands to share it with us, whom sharing does not impoverish, consent to see the sacrifice of their right and our birthright.

The people of the United States, be it known to these revolutionists of the Rump, regard the form of their government and the natural three-fold division of its granted powers, as the chief security of their laws and liberties, next to their own determined will. They conceive that that engagement and solemn compact of the people, the Constitution, obliges the constituent parts of the nation to hold their public faith with each other, the Legislative with the Executive, and the Judiciary, obliges each to maintain the others dutifully in an undiminished function and authority.

The people of the United States, be it known to these usurpers of the Rump, be it known to all would-be military dictators, look upon President Johnson, with all his faults and whatever his errors, if errors there have been, as their lawful and chosen Chief Magistrate; upon the justices of the Supreme Court as the highest expounders of their laws and sovereign will; upon the powers lodged with them and him as the pledge and not the period of their liberties. Him and them in all their rightful and granted authority they will uphold, support and defend, whosesoever bodies are carried to jail, whosesoever necks are stretched.

THE DANGER THICKENING!

We are no alarmists, but the time has come when the people must be aroused to the events which are throwing their shadows upon every home in the land. The Radical party is led and mastered by men who mean to destroy this government. They are traitors to all its fundamental principles, and would hold the reins of power, though slippery with the blood of their fellow-citizens shed in defense of a government founded by Washington, Madison, Jefferson, and their illustrious compeers. The drift of the proposed legislation at Washington is unmistakably towards a coup d'etat, by which military power will be substituted for the civil law in all parts of the Union. This danger the masses must face. Congress can go no further without confronting the people without a mask. If they can virtually depose the President, and enact that the Supreme Court shall not pronounce their acts unconstitutional, then there is no obstacle in creating a military despotism in the North, abolishing the elections, and declaring Congress en permanence. This is the danger now upon the country. The President must meet it, and the people protect their rights by all the "means which God and nature have put into their hands."—Age.

THE PEOPLE will not quietly permit the Radical leaders, unless we are gravely mistaken, to uproot the Constitution, abrogate the Supreme Court, strip the President of his authority, and erect a military despotism for our government, but will sternly teach them that to thus meddle with their liberties merits a speedy translation to another world. The people are quiet now, but they read and they think, and at the proper time it will need but a spark to kindle them to action. President Johnson holds the watch-tower and handles the signal flags; if he is a wise man he will know the time to throw them out, and the answering signals will flash from a thousand hill-tops; the people will rise.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

READ THEM!

We hope that all the Republicans in Adams county will read the extracts from prominent journals of their party, printed on our first page. They will see from them that there are still a few Republican editors not sufficiently blinded by party zeal or ambition for office, to follow the lead of the madmen who are now "ruling the country to its ruin," at Washington.

The following paragraphs have since fallen under our notice. The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, a leading Republican journal, says:

Mr. Stanton is clearly at fault in seeking to force himself upon the President as a member of his Cabinet. It is an indelicate piece of business, to say the least of it. The "potent, grave and reverend" Senators are equally at fault, in our opinion, for insisting that Mr. Stanton shall remain. We hope that the whole subject will be speedily disposed of by the resignation of the Secretary.

Here's what the Albany Evening Journal, the Republican organ at the capital of the great State of New York, has to say:

Those Republicans who have thought that fidelity to party required them to defend the Congressional scheme of reconstruction as a whole and in all its parts, find it "hard sledding" about this time. They hardly know where they are or what they shall be called to swear by next. To make everything sure and cover all possibilities, they might well modify their confession of political faith, and put it in a comprehensive form something like this: "We are for the Congressional plan of reconstruction as it was, as it is, and as it shall be, world without end."

The New York Post, a very able and decided Republican paper, in alluding to the bill before Congress to take all power from the President in Southern affairs and give it to General Grant, says:

Zealous, unhesitating, reckless partisans support the new bill as they would support anything that their party might proclaim, but we have yet to hear the approval of it by a single moderate person, Republican or Democrat. They say the attempt to strip the President of powers "vested" in him by the constitution, and confer them upon another officer, is clearly revolutionary. Even if it were not, it is novel and dangerous, and should only be done with the greatest caution and deliberation. No emergency exists to compel or justify it. Mr. Johnson has done nothing objectionable since Congress met, except the dismissal of General Pope, whom he has replaced by General Meade, who is just as decided and energetic as General Pope; and the conventions are held without molestation.

It is useless for General Garfield to argue that the President is "the subordinate of Congress." He is not; he is the co-ordinate of Congress; the integrity of his function is just as necessary as that of Congress, and to destroy this relation of equilibrium is to destroy the peculiar feature of our policy which has given it strength and success. The vast majority of the people have been taught for half a century to look upon this division of powers as we state them, and it would take them a long while to unlearn a doctrine which they identify with the stability of the nation. It is older than the Republican supremacy, and will outlast it if the opposite doctrine be insisted on.

THE Harrisburg Patriot & Union soundly argues that the first and best financial measure must be a complete, magnanimous and constitutional restoration of the Union—such a restoration as will bring prosperity and content to all the people, and tyranny or outlawry to none except such as have been or may be convicted, after fair trial, of infamous crime. This done, the public debt would prove but a feather's weight, and the burdens of taxation—heavy as they are—would not oppress, because they would fall on a prosperous people. Six millions of white people and four millions of blacks set to work with full guarantees of protection to person and property, will soon put a different face upon the deplorably hard times which are rapidly dragging the country down to ruin. Not only would they lift a share of the direct taxes from the Northern people, but from the surplus productions, sold abroad, hundreds of millions of dollars would find their way into the public coffers. Besides this, hundreds of millions of dollars' worth of the products of Northern handicraft would be bought and paid for by them, thereby giving employment to thousands of laborers and artisans who are now upon the borders of vagrancy throughout the North.

No financial measures can prove successful unless based upon this broad ground-work. Looking upon the question from this stand-point, the people cannot be cheated by any specious reasoning based entirely upon the selfish theories of interested bankers and capitalists.

HON. WILLIAM T. HAMILTON was on Saturday elected United States Senator from Maryland. Mr. Hamilton is a gentleman of education and experience in public affairs, and will make a proper representative for the State which has thus honored him.

HORSE-FLESH AS FOOD.—A French restaurant in New York is about to try the experiment of introducing horse-flesh as one of the delicacies.

LETTER FROM HARRISBURG.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 21, 1868.

Editor Compiler:—The weather being very disagreeable, everything in and around our city seems to be dull. We had a fire yesterday, next building to the Pennsylvania House, Second street, but it was extinguished before making much progress.

Both branches of the Legislature are dragging along slowly in the prosecution of the business for which they were sent here. On arriving here the Republicans professed a great desire to retrench and reform; but it was of short duration. For instance, the election of Speaker took the House four days, at a cost to the tax-payers of one thousand dollars per hour. This four days' work ought to have been, and heretofore was, performed in about fifteen minutes. Next in turn came a resolution from a Republican endorsing the action of the United States Senate in the usurpation in re-instating E. M. Stanton into the War Office. With this our Legislature had no business. They were sent here to make wholesome laws for the State of Pennsylvania, and not to look after the affairs at Washington. This also took the House two days to dispose of, at the same rate of one thousand dollars an hour.

In the Senate the same resolution is up, but not yet disposed of.

Next in turn, in the House, came the subject of rules to govern the House during the present session. Heretofore it took that body probably five minutes to do this, by simply adopting the former rules to be the rules of the session. But a whole day was spent this time; and even then but an immaterial change was effected in only one rule.

This is the way reform and retrenchment are carried out thus far by this Radical Legislature.

I see the "border members" are beginning to move again in the Damage question. Mr. Winger, from Franklin, presented several petitions from citizens of that county on the subject. I learn a bill to that end is soon to be introduced, probably to-day.

As you may desire to know a little of its chances of success, I made some inquiries from the friends of the bill. I think the chances are few and far between. They tell me that the Committee of Ways and Means, which consists of 21 members, is made up of 17 Republicans and only 4 Democrats, with John P. Mann, of Potter county, as Chairman. You know the bill has to go to this committee, who are to investigate the subject and report the same to the House. This chairman, John P. Mann, was the most uncompromising opponent to your bill last year. He made probably half a dozen speeches against your claims, in which he abused your citizens in the harshest language. He termed them traitors, rebels, extortionists, ruffians, &c., without regard to parties. You will see from this that you may have to grin and bear.

540 MILES OF THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD.

We kept hearing of it all summer, and late into the autumn—how ten miles of track were laid per day, until the foot of the Rock Mountains was reached, 517 miles west of Omaha, and one thousand miles west of Chicago. We had supposed that the contractors might stop there—that old Boreas would have blown such a frosty breath out of the frowning Black Hills, and followed it up with such a snow blanket that railroad building would have waited for spring and a warmer sunshine. But no: onward was the word, and to-day the locomotive is within ten miles of the highest summit in the mountain-chain that separates the Atlantic and Pacific States, and during this year of our Lord, 1868, much more than half the distance between the Missouri River and the Bay of San Francisco will be spanned by a first class Railroad.

The California mails and passengers have already been carried through to New York and Philadelphia in fifteen days, and it is expected that during the coming season the regular time will be reduced to nine days, and that more than half the Pacific coast travel will take this route, instead of the long, tedious journey of twenty-two to twenty-four days by sea. The intervening stage trip between the two ends of the Pacific Railroad line will be but a romantic holiday excursion, and we have no doubt that the passenger traffic in that direction this year will be a full earnest of the immense business that must follow the completion of the work perhaps two years later.

The Union Pacific Railroad is especially fortunate in many ways. It is true that, unlike any other line, it will be a monopoly, but nothing less than a monopoly could have commanded the large resources necessary to carry it through, and as it was, all but a few far-seeing capitalists declined to stake their fortunes on the result.

It is fortunate in having secured the most generous government aid, and the government is still more fortunate in being paid back with compound interest.

It is also fortunate in escaping all those pecuniary embarrassments that have so often checked and finally destroyed similar enterprises. The stockholders have already paid in eight millions five hundred thousand dollars upon the capital stock on the work already done, and this sum and the government aid, and their own First Mortgage Bonds, have given them ample means for the most vigorous prosecution of their great undertaking. We can perceive no reason to doubt that this greatest of modern works will go on as vigorously as it has been begun, and that 1870 will see the two sides of the Republic for the first time really united, to be, let us hope, forever inseparable.

THE Springfield, Massachusetts, Republican sums up the whole story of Reconstruction and public opinion thereon, when it says that "results are what the people look at, and, as a matter of fact, the negro is dominant in Southern politics." This "darkey" domination at the South, means negro equality, if not superiority, at the North. Negro suffrage involves the election of negro Congressmen. Then we have a new version of "The House that Jack built"—negro Congressmen will appoint negro cadets to West Point; negro cadets will become negro lieutenants in the regular army; they will command, as superiors, white soldiers, and we shall have negro officers ranking white officers. This is only an entering wedge; social equality comes next. The North generally, and the West particularly, are not quite prepared for this Radical revolution, which is to destroy the present social fabric.

"IF the President makes himself an impediment, he must be swept away," said the Tribune last week. Take care—take care, that the sweeping does not begin at "the other end of the Avenue!"

OVER one thousand young men are out of employment in Detroit.

THE thermometer at La Crosse, Wisconsin, stood at eighteen degrees below zero on the 7th.

Local Department.

TOWN, COUNTY AND SURROUNDING COUNTIES.

Thanks.—Mr. Heltzel, of the House, Harrisburg, has our thanks for Legislative favors.

Found.—An Ear Ring, found, the other day, in front of the National Cemetery, has been left at this office.

For Sale, cheap—an excellent Parlor Stove, at Dr. O'Neal's, on Baltimore street, near High.

Postponed.—Mr. John S. Crawford has postponed his sale of Real and Personal Property from Tuesday the 11th, to Wednesday the 12th, of February next.

Mad.—It is said that a valuable horse, the property of Mr. Eli Slagle, of New Oxford, went mad recently, and Mr. S. was obliged to kill him.

Revival.—A religious revival is now in progress in the Methodist E. Church, in this place. We understand that quite a number have already presented themselves at the mourner's bench.

The Standing Committees of the House at Harrisburg were announced on Friday last. Our member, Mr. Heltzel, is on the Committees on Federal Relations, Agriculture, and Claims.

Dissolution.—It will be seen by an advertisement in our paper to-day that Cobean & Shriver have dissolved partnership by mutual consent, and that all persons owing the late firm are desired to call and settle without delay.

Bank Stock Sold.—On Tuesday last, five shares of Gettysburg National Bank stock, belonging to the estate of Henry Spalding, deceased, were sold at public outcry, and brought $81 25 per share—the highest figure yet reached. E. B. Buehler, Esq., was the purchaser.

A State Temperance Convention will be held at Harrisburg, to commence on the 18th of February. All friends of Temperance are invited to attend. Persons paying full fare to Harrisburg over the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad and the Northern Central Railway will receive at the Convention free return tickets.

Frozen to Death.—Jacob Mickley, Sr., an old and much respected citizen of Franklin township, froze to death on Wednesday night week. He left home in the morning for the neighborhood of Hilltown, and returning in the evening, took across the fields, to save distance. Being very old, it is supposed that he became exhausted and fell, and unable to rise again, met his death from the severe cold. His age was 87 years 1 month and 29 days.

Personal Property Sales.—The large number of sales of personal property advertised in our columns will especially interest readers in the county and those along its borders. Advertisers show that they understand their interests when they avail themselves of the extensive circulation of the COMPILER to make known to the public, when, where, and what, they intend to sell. There is no better way to secure a large attendance, and consequent spirited bidding and good prices.

David Paul Brown's Lecture, in Agricultural Hall, on Tuesday evening, attracted, as it deserved to, a large and appreciative audience. The lecture was an able and polished effort, evincing the possession of brain and heart by the eloquent speaker. It was a rich intellectual treat, and so enjoyed by all present.

The Literary Societies of the College deserve thanks for carrying forward a movement so certain to afford delightful entertainment and valuable instruction to our citizens during these winter months. We cannot doubt that their venture will be crowned with success.

"Grumbler & Co"—The Harrisburg Telegraph says of Dr. Talmage's Lecture:—Talmage is a rare speaker. He has the gift of drawing tears from the eyes of his hearers one moment, and in the next convulsing them with laughter. His discourse on "Grumbler & Co.," is made up of side-splitting hits at persons and things, interspersed with eloquent and solemn sentences. Talmage is a popular lecturer, a fine writer, and an entertaining speaker.

Go hear "Grumbler & Co.," at AGRICULTURAL HALL, next Tuesday evening.

Court.—The January term of Court commenced on Monday—President Judge Fisher and Associates Wierman and Robinson on the bench.

On Monday afternoon, in the Common Pleas, the case of Peter Diehl vs. The Adams County Mutual Fire Insurance Company, for damages for loss by fire, was taken up. It occupied the time of the Court until Wednesday noon, when the jury returned a verdict in favor of the Company.

In the afternoon, in the Quarter Sessions, the trial of the Commonwealth vs. Isaac Kane, for stealing a horse from Jacob R. Witmor, was commenced. On Thursday morning a verdict of guilty was rendered by the jury, and Kane sentenced to the Penitentiary for the term of one year and eight months.

Court is still in session. All the applications for license were granted.

Property Sales.—Codori and Doersom have sold to McCurdy & Hamilton, a lot of about 2¼ acres, on North Stratton street, at $650, cash.

They have also sold a building lot, on the same street, to Carl Miller, at $150. Mr. Miller has already commenced the erection of a dwelling thereon.

Edward Sheffer has sold his property, in Reading township, to Peter Kaufman—14½ acres, with improvements, at $3,000.

Jacob Kime has purchased from Capt. Henry Witmor, 11½ acres of land, in Straban township, at $47 per acre, cash.

Daniel Miller has disposed of the Graeffenberg Springs property, in this county, to Samuel Seachrist, of Quincy, Franklin county, for $7,000.

Hard to Beat.—Mrs. A. Rebert, of this place, sent to our office, the other day, a sweet potato pumpkin of large proportions and first-rate quality. A most seasonable and acceptable present, "hard to beat," for which she has the printers' thanks.

Leap Year.—Impatient damsels and bashful young men should welcome the new year in an unusually "happy" manner. The former now have an opportunity of bringing dilatory lovers to the point without further delay, and many of the latter will no doubt be relieved of the dire necessity of "popping the question" by the voluntary offers of their darlings. Leap year only comes around once in a while, and we trust that our fair readers will make the most of their present opportunities. If anything comes of this advice, we hope that "the printer will be remembered."

Mammoth Hog.—Mr. Michael Emig, of West Manchester township, recently killed a hog that weighed 643 pounds. This monster was only twenty months old, and was raised by Mr. Emig.—York Gazette.

Donovan's Sentence.—Donovan, convicted of the murder of the Squibb family, was sentenced to be hung, by Judge Fisher, at York, on Monday week.—Donovan was asked the usual question whether he had anything to say why the sentence of death should not be pronounced upon him, when, with much emotion, he declared his innocence of the murder for which he had been convicted. The Court could not, of course, be governed in the least by this declaration, and Judge Fisher therefore proceeded to pass sentence upon him—as follows:

"Unfortunately this plea of innocence is no longer of any avail. You have been twice tried and convicted of the murder of George Squibb, although ably defended by your counsel on both trials.

"After your first trial you were granted a new one, and this has resulted in another conviction. You have since made no application for another; and it now becomes the painful duty of the Court to pronounce upon you the sentence which the law demands.

"How long or how short a time will elapse before this sentence will be executed, I do not know. The time will be fixed by the Governor of this Commonwealth. But I do know that it will not be many weeks or months. This time, whatever it may be, you will have for repentance and preparation. No time is too short if properly improved. Banish then from your mind, as far as possible, all the concerns of this world, and devote yourself to the duties which your situation requires. Call to your aid the ministers of your church, and under their ministrations, I hope and pray that when life with you here is at an end, you may enter into the eternal rest prepared for all those who truly repent and rely for forgiveness upon the atoning blood of Christ.

"The sentence of the Court is, that you, William Donovan, be taken from this place to the prison from whence you came, and thence to the place of execution, and there be hanged by the neck until you are dead—and may the Lord God Almighty have mercy upon your soul."

At the conclusion of the Court's sentence Donovan approached Judge Fisher, shook him by the hand, and remarked—"I will meet you in heaven!"

Skating—A Frightful Accident.—The cold snap which has been prevailing for the past five or six days, has had the effect of freezing up the Cordorus creek and other streams in this vicinity, and they were, previous to the snow, covered with fine smooth ice, suitable for good skating. On Saturday and Monday, hundreds of young folks availed themselves of the opportunity thus afforded to amuse themselves in this delightful and invigorating sport, and all seemed to enjoy themselves amazingly. On the afternoon of Saturday, however, as all appeared in the height of enjoyment, an accident occurred, which, for a time, caused great terror and consternation among all who witnessed the terrible and heart-rending scene. A large number of persons were on the ice, between Kone's bridge and the Chicken bridge, when the ice suddenly gave away, and Miss Kate Brenizer, James Danner, Edward Heckert, Samuel Grape, Mervin Ogden, John A. Beitzel, George Barnitz, George Bressler, Robert Fisher, and Henry Hauer, sunk into the water some five or six feet deep, but were fortunately, with great difficulty, rescued from a watery grave, by means of a boat which luckily was found close at hand. The utmost confusion prevailed for a time, and despair and consternation were depicted upon the countenances of all who witnessed the unfortunate victims struggling, as it were, between life and death. Ropes, scantling, boards, etc., were brought into requisition, but all to no effect. Every means failed, and the parties were in the water some 10 or 15 minutes, before the boat was resorted to, by which means they were readily rescued.

On the same afternoon, a son of Henry Kraber, Esq., broke through the ice immediately under the Main Street bridge, and was rescued from drowning with considerable difficulty, the parties on shore using a rope and ladder for that purpose.—York Press.

The Gettysburg Asylum.—It is known that a scheme was got through the Pennsylvania Legislature at its last session which turns out to be a grand lottery or gift enterprise, ostensibly for erecting an asylum for invalid soldiers at Gettysburg. Some legal steps were taken in regard to the enterprise in Philadelphia, but in the meantime the managers went on to advertise it, and the commissioner of internal revenue exempted it from the payment of special tax, which brought the subject to the attention of the congressional committee on retrenchment. That committee, it is announced, has just finished its consideration of the report of the commissioner giving his reasons why the scheme was exempted, and it is stated that in the course of the present week General Van Wyck will make a report, giving a history of the affair, concluding with a resolution requesting the commissioner to revoke the permit, so that taxes and license may be collected from said association the same as if no permit had ever been given.—Balt. Sun.

"Bogus" Senator—"bogus" scheme!

"Coe's Cough Balsam" are household words throughout the United States. As we travel we are greeted with it from rocks and fences; if we pick up a newspaper we are advised to "try it"; and as we visit our friends we see it on shelf ready for use. It soothes fretful children, puts a veto on coughing, and is a great relief to the consumptive.

"Their Name is Legion," may be applied to the innumerable diseases to which the skin is subject. It would be well for those who are afflicted with apparently incurable ulcers, old sores, erysipelas and eruptions, to use Grace's Celebrated Salve, which cures in a very short time, cuts, burns, scalds, flesh wounds, &c.

A SIGN OF THE TIMES.

At the Republican County Convention held in Indianapolis on Saturday, the following preamble and resolution were adopted:

WHEREAS, Equal, and exact justice should rule the action of public as well as private debtors in dealing with their creditors; therefore,

Resolved, That the bonds and other obligations of the General Government which do not expressly stipulate for payment in coin on their face should be paid in legal money; and that our delegates to the State Convention are instructed to vote for a resolution in the State platform embodying this proposition.

What will the Eastern Radicals say to that?

"COPPERHEADISM," according to a definition of Mr. Farnsworth, of Illinois, Radical, means "a preference for a government of civil law over a military despotism." We accept the definition, and so will the country. Radicalism means "a preference for a military despotism over a government of civil law." This is shown by their acts, both committed and contemplated.

IT is a notable fact that in not a single State which held an election last year have the Radicals made a gain. They have lost everywhere and in all.

IN one of Josh Billings' late papers he says: "The sun was a-going to bed, and the heavens far and near were a-blushing at the performance."

540 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD,
Running West from Omaha
ACROSS THE CONTINENT,
ARE NOW COMPLETED.
THE TRACK BEING LAID AND TRAINS RUNNING
Within Ten Miles of the Summit
OF THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS.

The remaining ten miles will be finished as soon as the weather permits the road-bed to be sufficiently packed to receive the rails. The work continues to be pushed forward in the rock cuttings on the western slope with unabated energy, and a much larger force will be employed during the current year than ever before. The prospect that the whole was never better. The means so far provided for construction have proved ample, and there is no lack of funds for the most vigorous prosecution of the enterprise. These means are divided into four classes:

GRAND LINE TO THE PACIFIC
WILL BE COMPLETED IN 1870,

1.—UNITED STATES BONDS,

Having thirty years to run, and bearing six per cent currency interest, at the rate of $16,000 per mile for 517 miles on the Plains; then at the rate of $48,000 per mile for 150 miles through the Rocky Mountains, then at the rate of $32,000 per mile for the remaining distance, for which the United States takes a second lien as security. The interest on these Bonds is paid by the United States Government, which also pays the company one-half the amount of its bills in money for transporting its freight, troops, mails, &c. The remaining half of these bills is placed to the Company's credit, and forms a sinking fund which may finally discharge the whole amount of this lien.

2.—FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS.

By its charter the Company is permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to the same amount as the bonds issued by the Government, and no more, and only as the road progresses. The Trustees for the Bondholders are the Hon. E. D. Morgan, U. S. Senator from New York, and the Hon. Oakes Ames, Member of the U. S. House of Representatives, who are responsible for the delivery of these Bonds to the Company in accordance with the terms of the law.

3.—THE LAND GRANT.

The Union Pacific Railroad Company has a land grant or absolute donation from the government of 12,800 acres to the mile on the line of the road, which will not be worth less than $1.50 per acre, at the lowest valuation.

4.—THE CAPITAL STOCK.

The authorized capital of the Union Pacific Railroad Company is $100,000,000, of which over $8,500,000 have been paid on the work already done.

The Means Sufficient to Build the Road.

Contracts for the entire work of building 914 miles of first-class railroad west from Omaha, comprising much of the most difficult mountain work, and embracing every expense except surveying, have been made with responsible parties (who have already finished over 540 miles) at the average rate of sixty-eight thousand and fifty-eight dollars ($68,058) per mile. This price includes all necessary shops for construction and repairs of cars, depots, stations, and all other incidental buildings, and also locomotives, passenger, baggage, and freight cars, and other requisite rolling stock, to an amount that shall not be less than $5,000 per mile. Allowing the cost of the remaining one hundred and eighty-six of the eleven hundred miles to be built by the Union Pacific Co. [illegible]

The Total Cost of Eleven Hundred Miles will be as follows:

914 miles, at $68,058	$62,205,012
186 miles, at $90,000	16,740,000
Add discount on bonds, surveys, &c.	1,500,000
Amount	$80,445,012

As the U. S. Bonds are equal to money, and the Company's own First Mortgage Bonds have a ready market, we have as the

Available Cash Resources for Building Eleven Hundred Miles:

U. S. Bonds	$29,328,000
First Mortgage Bonds	29,328,000
Capital Stock paid in on the work done	5,500,000
Land Grant, 14,080,000 acres, at $1 50 p.	21,120,000
Total	$85,276,000

The Company have ample facilities for supplying any deficiency that may arise in means for construction. This may be done wholly or in part by additional subscriptions to capital stock.

EARNINGS OF THE COMPANY.

At present, the profits of the Company are derived only from its local traffic, but this is already much more than sufficient to pay the interest on all the Bonds the Company can issue, if not another mile were built. It is not doubted that when the road is completed the through traffic of the only line connecting the Atlantic and Pacific States will be large beyond precedent, and, as there will be no competition, it can always be done at profitable rates.

It will be noticed that the Union Pacific Railroad is, in fact, a Government Work, built under the supervision of Government officers, and to a large extent with Government money, and that its bonds are issued under Government direction. It is believed that no similar security is so carefully guarded, and certainly no other is based upon a larger or more valuable property. As the Company's are offered for the present at 90 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR, they are the cheapest security in the market, being more than 15 per cent. lower than U. S. Stocks. They pay

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD, or over NINE PER CENT. upon the investment, and have thirty years to run before maturity.

Subscriptions will be received in GETTYSBURG, by the GETTYSBURG NATIONAL BANK and FIRST NATIONAL BANK, and in New York at the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau street, and by

CONTINENTAL NATIONAL BANK, No. 7 Nassau st.,
CLARK, DODGE & CO., Bankers, No. 51 Wall st.,
JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 33 Wall st.,

and by the Company's advertised Agents throughout the United States. Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A NEW PAMPHLET AND MAP, showing the Progress of the Work, Resources for Construction, and Value of Bonds, may be obtained at the Company's Offices or of its advertised Agents, or will be sent free on application.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Iron in the Blood.

The necessity of a due proportion of iron in the blood is well known to all medical men; when it becomes reduced from any cause whatever, the whole system suffers, the weakest part being first attacked, and a feeling of languor, lassitude and "all goneness" pervades the system. The remedy is simply to supply the blood with the necessary quantity of iron. This can be done by using the a protected solution of the protoxide of iron, which is so prepared that it assimilates at once with the blood, giving strength, vigor and new life to the whole system.

To take medicine to cure diseases occasioned by a deficiency of IRON IN THE BLOOD, without restoring it to the system, is like trying to repair a building when the foundation is gone.

An eminent divine says: "I have been using the PERUVIAN SYRUP for some time past; it gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of muscle."

Pamphlets containing certificates of cures, and recommendations from some of the most eminent physicians, clergymen and others, will be sent free to any address.

The genuine has "PERUVIAN SYRUP" blown in the glass.

To Owners of Horses.

Thousands of Horses die yearly from Colic. This need not be. Dr. Tobias' Venetian Horse Liniment will positively cure every case, if given when first taken. The cost is only one dollar. Every owner of a horse should have a bottle in his stable, ready for use. It is warranted superior to anything else for the cure of Cuts, Wind Galls, Swellings, Sore Throat, Sprains, Bruises, Old Sores, &c. This Liniment is no new remedy. It has been used and approved of for 20 years by the first horsemen in the country. Given to over-driven horses, it acts like magic. Orders are constantly received from the racing stables of England for it. The celebrated Hiram Woodruff, of trotting fame, used it for years, and said it is far superior to any other he can find. Recollect Dr. Tobias' Venetian Horse Liniment is put up in pint bottles. Take no other. Sold by the Druggists and Saddlers. Depot, 56 Cortlandt Street, New York.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.

New Subscribers.—Premium.—This is the beginning of a new year, and a very proper time to subscribe for the COMPILER. The paper (greatly enlarged) contains weekly not only all the news worth publishing, with agricultural and other useful reading—but also a large amount of valuable matter bearing on the political issues of the day. In local matter it is always in the lead.

Our list is already large, but it can be increased—and should be, the importance of the coming Presidential campaign considered. As an inducement to our present subscribers to assist in the desirable work, we make the following offer:

Any one now a subscriber to the COMPILER, who will send us the names of four new subscribers, with the cash in advance, (eight dollars,) will receive a credit of one year's subscription on his own account—in other words, for a new subscriber sent in, accompanied by the cash, a PREMIUM OF FIFTY CENTS will be allowed as a credit on present subscription.

Who will be the first to go into this work? CIRCULATE THE TRUTH!

ONE of the planks in Thaddeus Stevens's platform is laid down by himself thus:

"I will not stultify myself by supposing that we have any warrant in the Constitution for this proceeding. This talk of restoring the Union as it was, under the Constitution as it is, is one of the absurdities I have heard repeated until I have become sick of it. This Union can never be restored as it was."

Can honest men in the Republican party endorse such wholesale "disloyalty?"

HOOFLAND'S
GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
Hoofland's German Tonic.

THE GREAT REMEDIES

FOR ALL DISEASES OF

THE LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medically termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

Hoofland's German Bitters.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

Hoofland's German Tonic.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medical virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

CONSTIPATION, FLATULENCE, INWARD PILES, FULLNESS OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, NAUSEA, HEART-BURN, DISGUST FOR FOOD, FULLNESS OR WEIGHT IN THE STOMACH, SOUR ERUCTATIONS, SINKING OR FLUTTERING AT THE PIT OF THE STOMACH, SWIMMING OF THE HEAD, HURRIED OR DIFFICULT BREATHING, FLUTTERING AT THE HEART, CHOKING OR SUFFOCATING SENSATIONS WHEN IN A LYING POSTURE, DIMNESS OF VISION, DOTS OR WEBS BEFORE THE SIGHT, DULL PAIN IN THE HEAD, DEFICIENCY OF PERSPIRATION, YELLOWNESS OF THE SKIN AND EYES, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK, CHEST, LIMBS, ETC., SUDDEN FLUSHES OF HEAT, BURNING IN THE FLESH, CONSTANT IMAGININGS OF EVIL, AND GREAT DEPRESSION OF SPIRITS.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,

Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposures, Fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instill new life into the veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietors, but space will allow of the publication of but few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

Hon. Geo. W. Woodward,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:

Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.

"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours truly,

GEO. W. WOODWARD."

Hon. James Thompson,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,

JAMES THOMPSON."

From Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates St.

From Rev. E. D. Fendall,

Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philada.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours truly, E. D. FENDALL.

CAUTION.

COVERING STRAWBERRIES IN WINTER.

The object of covering strawberries at the approach of winter is often misapprehended. It sometimes happens that a novice covers his plants and finds a large portion of them dead in the Spring. He has overdone the thing, and taken too much care of his favorites. The object is not so much to keep frost from the plant as to protect both tops and roots from the disastrous effects of alternate freezing and thawing. Hence the covering should be put on with discrimination, and while it may be quite thick between the rows, it should not be more than an inch or so in depth over the plants themselves. In all good cultivation the plants are covered, and this serves the double purpose of protecting them from injury by alternate heat and cold, and when left on, as it should be, it keeps down the weeds and prevents the fruit from becoming soiled by contact with the earth. As to the material to be used, that will depend much upon the resources of the locality. Probably the worst materials are tan-bark or saw-dust, not that they do not afford sufficient protection, but because they soil the fruit quite as much as if it were exposed to damage from the earth. Near the coast, "salt hay" is much used, and where it is obtainable nothing can be better. It is made from a wiry kind of grass, that preserves its elasticity in a remarkable degree. Perhaps the most generally used material is straw. Oat straw, thrashed by the flail, is preferred by some cultivators, but any kind will answer. With machine-thrashed straw it is well to throw a sprinkling of earth over it to hold it in place until the snows and frosts secure it. Do the same when leaves are employed to cover the plants; these make an excellent mulch, as do spent hops from breweries. Pine straw—fallen pine leaves—where they are abundant, are capital for the purpose. Corn-stalks are used in some parts of the West with success, and lastly, nature's own covering—snow, if we could but secure its supremacy, is, as far as Winter protection goes, the best covering of all.—American Agriculturist.

NEURALGIA.—We have cut from the Alta Californian a receipt for the cure of neuralgia, which the editor of that paper claims to have been effective in several cases to his own knowledge. He says:

"Some time ago we published, at the request of a friend, a receipt to cure neuralgia: Half a drachm of sal ammonia in an ounce of camphor water, to be taken a teaspoonful at a dose, and the dose repeated several times at intervals of five minutes, if the pain be not relieved at once. Half a dozen different persons have since tried the receipt, and in every case an immediate cure has been effected. In one, the sufferer, a lady, had been affected for more than a week, and her physician was unable to alleviate her sufferings, when a solution of sal ammonia in camphor water relieved her in a few minutes."

CURE FOR CROUP.—An exchange states that croup is always curable by a very simple remedy, even when the patient is on the verge of suffocation. This consists, first, in applying water to the throat by means of a sponge or soft cloth, so hot as to be very painful to the hand of the operator, instant relief being afforded. After this has been continued from fifteen to thirty minutes, a poultice of linseed meal, rolled up in a cloth, is to be applied while very hot, and left on for some time. The remedies are to be repeated should the attack return; but the writer states that after a long experience he has never known them to fail.

HOW TO FORTELL THE WEATHER.—If you wish to know what the weather is to be, go out and select the smallest cloud you see; keep your eye upon it, and if it decreases and disappears, it shows a state of the air that will be sure to be followed by fair weather; but if it increases in size, take your great coat with you if you are going from home, for falling weather will not be far off. The reason is this: when the air is becoming charged with electricity, you will see every cloud attracting all less ones toward it until it gathers to a shower; and on the contrary, when the fluid is passing off or diffusing itself, even a large cloud will be seen breaking to pieces and dissolving.

SILK PLANT DISCOVERED IN PERU.—The Department of State has received information from the U. S. Consul at Lambayeque, Peru, that an important discovery has recently been made in Peru, of the silk plant. Preparations are being made to cultivate it upon a more extensive scale. The shrub is three or four feet in height. The silk is inclosed in a pod, of which each plant gives a great number, and is declared to be superior in fineness and quality to the production of the silk worm. It is a wild perennial, the seed small and easily separated from the fibre. The stems of the plants produce a long and very brilliant fibre, superior in strength and beauty to the finest woven thread. Small quantities have been woven in the rude manner of the Indians, and the texture and brilliancy are said to be unsurpassed.

WALL PAPER SUPERSEDED.—According to the Boston Transcript, a man in Cambridge, Mass., has made a new invention, by which wood hangings will take the place of paper. The Transcript says:

"A very delicate, simple and beautiful machine has been constructed, which will take a portion of a tree after it has been cut the right length and width, and shave it up into thin ribbons as wide as a roll of house paper, making one hundred or one hundred and fifty to the inch. These rolls of wood are placed on the walls by paper hangers with paste and brush, precisely in the same manner as with paper. The wood is wet when used, and really works easier than paper, besides it is much more tough and pliable. In these days, when variety is sought for, one can finish the walls of his house in different woods to suit his taste. One room can be finished in birds' eye maple, another in chesnut, another in cherry, another in white wood, and so on. Thus he has no imitation, but the real, genuine article upon his walls."

THERE is a tree standing on the farm of Levi Graves, in Leverett, Mass., that rises from the ground by two distinct trunks, standing a foot apart. Each trunk is more than a foot in diameter, and straight and well formed. They run up twenty feet or more, then join in a solid single trunk, forming a beautiful top like any single tree.

— A tree very much like the above may be seen on the north bank of the Conowago, near Beecher's paper mill, in this county.

A MACHINE which will remove the pits from 100 cherries in a minute, has been invented in Germany.

LOOK OUT FOR OLD CHRIS!

E. H. MINNICH,

Chambersburg Street, next door to the Keystone Hotel, Gettysburg,

THE only authorized agent in this place of His Excellency, CHRIS KRINGLE, Esq., announces to the people of Gettysburg and surrounding country, that he is now receiving at his Store, the Baggage and Equipments of the "Old Gentleman," which are to be distributed in rich profusion, and at such prices as will astonish even those who think a cent as big as cart wheel.

TOYS of every description, to make cheerful the hearts and jubilant the spirits of the juvenile population, and a supply of FRENCH and COMMON CANDIES, to sweeten and seal and make perpetually cohesive the affections of those whose hearts are throbbing in anticipation of changing their condition in life, and a superabundance of RICH CAKES to make complete the Wedding and Holiday Feasts.

Also, ORANGES, LEMONS, NUTS, and a thousand and one other good things.

His stock is very large, bought at the very lowest prices, and to be sold at the smallest profits. Call in, old and young, male and female, and you will be sure to find something to please you.

LUMBER, COAL,
STOVES, TIN-WARE, &C.

Corner of Carlisle Street and the Railroad, GETTYSBURG, PA.

AN IMMENSE STOCK!

IN order to give the public something like an adequate idea of the immense stock of Lumber, Coal, Stoves, Tin-ware, &c., &c., on hand and for sale by the undersigned, at his establishment, in Carlisle street, across the Railroad from the Passenger Station, he would enumerate as far as the limits of a newspaper advertisement will allow:

IN THE LUMBER LINE:

Boards and Plank of every grade, from cullings to panel, Joists and Scantling, pine and hemlock, Siding, planed and unplaned, Flooring, Shingles, Shingle Laths, Plastering Laths, Pickets, ready-made Doors and Sash, Blinds and Shutters,—in fact, everything used for building purposes.

IN THE COAL LINE:

Shamokin White Ash and Lykens' Valley Red Ash, these two varieties being the purest and best for all domestic purposes. Also the very best Broad-top and Allegheny Smith Coal.

IN THE STOVE LINE:

Waverly, Noble Cook, Royal Cook, Barley Sheaf, Oriental, Stewart's Cook, Ornamental, Excelsior, Prince Royal and the Emerald Cooking Stoves, all for coal or wood. These varieties are a selection from the best and most popular Cooking Stoves the market affords, and are all warranted to give entire satisfaction. Also, a very large variety of Parlor, Saloon and Shop Stoves, for coal or wood, including the celebrated Morning Glory, the Vulcan, Oval Meteor, Round Meteor, Dial, Violet, Gem, Regulator, Comet, Egg, New Egg, Parlor Cook, &c., &c. Fire Brick and Grates, for coal or wood, always on hand.

IN THE TIN-WARE LINE:

The assortment embraces everything necessary for kitchen or household purposes, including a large number of convenient yet cheap articles of new design which must be seen to be appreciated. The stock is so large and varied that those who have not visited the establishment have no conception of its extent. In addition to the ordinary kitchen utensils, it includes Bathing Vessels, Toilet Chamber Sets, plain and fancy, Chamber Buckets, Bread and Spice Boxes, Tea and Coffee Canisters, Feed Boxes, Spittoons, Tumbler Drainers, Bill-head Boxes, Waiters, Ale Carriers, Water Coolers, Slaw Cutters, Nurse Lamps, Jelly Moulds, Pudding Moulds, Patent Nutmeg Graters, Comb Cases, Gen. Grant Plates and A B C Plates, Ash Buckets, Flour Sieves, Bird Cages, Spout Heads, Coffee Mills, Lanterns, Basting Spoons, Large Forks, Candle Sticks, Candle Moulds, Copper Dippers, Wrought-iron Frying Pans, Smoothing Irons, Foot Scrapers, Coffee Roasters, Waffle Irons, Snuffers, Dinner and Auctioneer Bells, Egg Beaters, Oilers, Fluted Funnels, Cool Sieves, Glass-top Fruit Cans, Plain-top Fruit Cans, Self-sealing Jars, &c., &c. Tin-ware made to order, and repairing promptly attended to, by the best of workmen.

IN THE HOLLOW-WARE LINE:

Cast-iron Pots, of every size and variety, for stoves, Porcelain Kettles, for cooking and preserving, Tin-lined Kettles for ditto, Cast-iron Stew Pans, of every size and variety, Porcelain and tinned, with a thousand and one other articles impossible to enumerate in an advertisement.

Attention is specially directed to three valuable patents for which he is agent, and about which there is no humbug, as can be attested by scores who have used them, viz: THE UNIVERSAL CLOTHES-WRINGER, DOTY'S WASHING MACHINE, and the celebrated DIAMOND CHURN.

The public are invited to call and examine goods and prices. He guarantees to sell everything in his line at exceeding low figures. Come and see, to gratify your curiosity, if you do not want to buy. No trouble to show goods.

AGENTS AND DEALERS IN
PIANOS & CABINET ORGANS, MELODEONS, AND ALL KINDS OF MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS,

respectfully inform the public that they are prepared to furnish Pianos of the following manufacture or of any other make that may be preferred:

Albright, Reikes & Schmidt,
Chickering & Son, Bradbury,
Knabe & Son, Gale & Son,

ESTEY'S CELEBRATED
COTTAGE, HARMONIC AND BOUDOIR
ORGANS AND MELODEONS.

These Instruments stand unrivalled by any thing found in this country or in Europe, as is admitted by all impartial judges. The most eminent Pipe Organ Builders and Performers, the last to discover excellence in Reed Tone, pronounced them vastly superior to all others for exceedingly quick articulation and round Tone, the essential feature in instruments of this class. We invite the severe scrutiny and criticism of all.

PATENT VOX HUMANA TREMOLO.

This late and most wonderful invention (so acknowledged by all leading artists) will be found only in the Estey Instruments. In attempting to describe the effect of this stop, we are at loss for language. Its beauties cannot be written, but must be heard to be appreciated. By this stop an ordinary performer can produce an effect which requires a life time of practice for an artist upon a violin. It entirely changes the reed Tone, giving the sympathetic sweetness of the human voice, making it so melodious and pure that it never fails to enchant the listener.

THE HARMONIC ORGAN

for Churches, Public Halls and Parlors has a powerful sub-Bass with independent reeds, Harmonic attachment and Vox Humana Tremolo, and is believed to be the most powerful reed organ made, being nearly equal to a Pipe Organ of three times the cost.

All instruments warranted for five years.

☞BRASS BANDS supplied with instruments and music at reasonable terms.

A liberal discount allowed for Churches and Sabbath Schools.

☞Instructions given both in Vocal and Instrumental Music, at our rooms, and at pupils homes, either to individuals or classes, on reasonable terms.

PELOUBET ORGANS AND MELODIANS,

UNANIMOUSLY awarded the First Prize, a Gold Medal, "AS THE BEST CABINET ORGANS," American Institute, New York, October, 1865.

Being pronounced superior in QUALITY, POWER and VARIETY OF TONE, and in number of combinations.

"As the best instruments of America were there contending, whichever won the battle would have nothing left to conquer."—American Art Journal, (edited by a well-known musical critic.)

They have also taken the first premium wherever exhibited this season.

PEDAL ORGANS, one, two and three banks of keys—six sizes—$250 to $1,500. Without pedals, single and double bank in great variety, $65 to $450. These Organs, with their smooth pipe-like quality of tone, beautiful solo stops, strength of chorus, unequalled pedals, and general organ-like effects, are superior for Churches, Halls, Parlors and Schools. They are put up in cases of solid Walnut, fancy veneered Walnut (new and unique styles) and elegant Rosewood, of splendid designs and finish, and of the best workmanship—it being intended that each instrument shall be a model of its class. All instruments down to a fine octavo portable Melodeon, have the beautiful Tremulant stop, without extra charge.

SEWING MACHINES.

The Grover & Baker.—The Best in Use.

THESE Machines have become so well known that little need be said by way of recommendation. They have taken the first premium at all the late State Fairs, and are universally acknowledged to be the BEST in use by all who have tried them. The "Grover & Baker Stitch" and the "Shuttle Stitch" are points that have been attained by no other Machine. They are the only machines that sew and embroider with perfection. These Machines are peculiarly adapted to Family use. They are noiseless, sew directly from the spool without rewinding, and are simple in their construction. They are easy to manage, and can be worked by almost any child. Every family should have one. They save labor, they save time, and they save money, and do their work better than it can be done by hand.

The undersigned having been appointed Agent for the above Machines, has established an Agency in Fairfield, Adams county, where he will always have on hand a supply. Persons wishing to buy will please call and examine for themselves.

Magnetic Salve and Plaster.

This deservedly popular remedy, having been greatly improved, is now offered to the citizens of Adams county.

The many thousands who are daily using it, testify to its magical virtues in the early stages of Consumption, Coughs, local Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Jaw and Tooth Ache, Weakness and Pain in the Back, Side and Kidneys, Cancer, Scrofula, Old Sores, Erysipelas, Fresh Wounds, Burns, Bruises, Sore or Inflamed Breasts, Inverted Toe Nails, Corns, Bunions, &c., &c.

Its mysterious virtues, and the wonderful cures it has performed, might be published; but the discoverer is willing to rely on its intrinsic merits, in order to introduce it into every family in the country.

Prepared only by the proprietor, 255 E. Lombard Street, Baltimore, and sold by A. D. BUEHLER, Dr. R. HORNER, and J. S. FORNEY, Gettysburg, and by the merchants of the county.

LYON'S PERIODICAL DROPS!

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY FOR IRREGULARITIES!

I have tested these Drops in my own practice, over ten years, and do not hesitate to say, that nothing has yet been developed by medical research, that acts so powerfully, positively and harmlessly, in cases of female irregularity, as does this medicine. In all recent cases it never fails, while thousands who have been long sufferers, are indebted to it for the boon of health to-day.

Although so powerful and positive, they are perfectly harmless, and may be used at all times, except when specially forbidden in the directions. They have been extensively employed by eminent physicians in France and England, as well as in my own practice, over ten years, and I have yet to hear of the first instance of failure. I could give you testimonials of their efficacy from all over the northern and western States, were they not in their nature private. Over 100,000 bottles have been sold the past year, and I hope and trust as many sufferers have been benefitted. I am well aware that a remedy so potent to remove all obstructions, may be used for a bad purpose, but trust that where one bottle is thus used, ten may fall into the hands of really needy sufferers.

To all who suffer from any irregularity; painful, difficult, excessive, offensive or obstructed Menstruation, Leucorrhea, or the train of diseases that follow, I would say, try a bottle of DR. LYON'S FRENCH PERIODICAL DROPS. Being a fluid preparation, their action is more direct and positive than any pills or powders. Explicit directions, bearing my fac simile, accompany each bottle.

They may be obtained of nearly every druggist in the country, or by enclosing the price to C. G. CLARK & CO., New Haven, Conn., General Agents for the United States and Canada.

Will Invariably Cure Tickling in the Throat!

A half bottle has often completely cured the most Stubborn Cough, and yet, though it is so sure and speedy in its operation, it is perfectly harmless, being purely vegetable. It is very agreeable to the taste, and may be administered to children of any age.

In cases of CROUP we will guarantee a cure, if taken in season. No Family should be without it! It is within the reach of all, it being the cheapest and best medicine extant.

REMOVAL!

THE GETTYSBURG SKY-LIGHT GALLERY.

THE undersigned takes pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Gettysburg and the public generally that he has removed from his old rooms on West Middle street, to Baltimore street, and nearly opposite the store of Fahnestock Brothers. The room he now occupies has been recently fitted up expressly for his business. The location is an admirable one, enabling him to take pictures in all shades of weather, and with a correctness unequalled any where else.

LIFE-LIKE PHOTOGRAPHS,

of every size and description, executed in the finest style. Particular attention given to the CARTE DE VISITE, and to copying AMBROTYPES and DAGUERREOTYPES of deceased friends. Also—a new style of picture, which has become very popular with the public, not only for their beauty, but for cheapness and convenience, SIXTEEN for ONE DOLLAR only. Also—THE PORCELAIN PICTURE, which for their beauty and durability are unsurpassed.

We are prepared to carry on the business in all its various branches, and having had considerable experience we run no risk in

GUARANTEEING PERFECT SATISFACTION

Our facilities for a full display of our skill are unequalled by any other Gallery in the county, and we would therefore invite every one to call at the

NEW GETTYSBURG SKY-LIGHT GALLERY.

Call and examine our Specimens and judge for yourselves. LEVI MUMPER.

NEW AND CHEAP CLOTHING
AT BRINKERHOFF'S.

STACKS OF THEM!

J. BRINKERHOFF, corner of the Diamond and York street, has just returned from the city with an unusually attractive assortment of which he will sell at such prices as cannot fail to take them off very rapidly. Call and judge for yourselves. To look at the excellent material, tasteful cutting, and neat and substantial sewing, and then to get his low prices—callers cannot help but buy, when they see it so much to their interest to do so.

He has Coats, Pants, Vests, of all styles and materials;

Hats, Boots and Shoes;

Shirts, of all kinds, Hosiery, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Neck-ties, Cravats, Linen and Paper Collars, Suspenders, Brushes, Combs;

Trunks, Valises, Umbrellas, Pocket Knives, Segars, Smoking and Chewing Tobaccos, Pipes, Stationery, &c.

Clocks, Watches, Jewelry, with a thousand and one other articles, entirely too numerous to detail in a newspaper advertisement.

He asks the attention of the public to his new stock, confident that it will please—and no one can or will sell cheaper. Don't forget the place—corner of York street and the Diamond, Gettysburg.

NEW FIRM.

AT THE OLD STAND.
[ESTABLISHED IN 1817.]

I HAVE associated with me, in business, my son, John F. McCreary, under the firm and style of D. McCreary & Son, and I desire to say to my old friends and the public generally that since the war, the manufacture of Saddles, Harness, Collars, &c., has been revived at the old established and well known stand on Baltimore street, one square south of the Court House, Gettysburg, Pa.

Having had an experience of 40 years in this establishment, I feel assured, that, with renewed attention to business, we can still further merit and receive a full share of public patronage.

D. McCREARY.

With increased facilities for conducting our business, we are better prepared than ever to satisfy the wants of all those who may need anything in our line. We especially call the attention of Farmers and others to the superior quality of our

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored.

JUST published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

☞Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,
